Vestry Summary

Susan Shultz

Next Meeting - Vestry will not meet during the months of July and August. However, you can always reach out to any Vestry member at any time. The next formal Vestry meeting will be Sunday September 15 in the library after the 9:00 a.m. service. All are welcome!

General - Just a reminder that we still have an open Vestry At-Large position. If you are interested, please speak to Barb Parsons or Jan Cianelli.

Worship - BYOBC (Bring Your Own Beach Chair) Once a month in July, August and September we are going to have one combined Sunday service on the side lawn at 9:00 a.m. The dates will be July 21, August 18, and September 15. Email reminders will be sent the week before each special service.

Building & Grounds - The Vestry is going to approve some money for church repairs/painting. This will be done via email after the meeting.

Special Event - Toby Armour, playwright, will present "Tales of Old East Haven," a staged reading of three short plays bringing 18th century citizens of East Haven to life on Sunday, July 21st at 2:30 p.m. at the church. See the full article below.

Tales of Old East Haven

Pat Souney will direct "Tales of Old East Haven", a staged reading of three short plays by playwright Toby Armour, bringing 18th century citizens of East Haven to life, Sunday, July 21st at 2:30 p.m. at Christ and The Epiphany Church, 39 Park Place (on the Green), East Haven, CT. Proceeds will benefit the historic preservation of the 1791 house at 47 Park Place, home of the East Haven Historic Society's Museum. A reception will follow the program. Suggested minimum free will donation is $5.00, and tickets may be reserved by calling the church office at 203 467-2310. People interested in volunteering should contact Wendy Bellmore.

Harvest Fair and East Haven Fall Festival

On Saturday, September 7, we will hold our annual bake sale at C&E and have a booth at East Haven's Fall Festival on the green. Please contact Carol Ude to donate your homemade baked goods and Diane Villano to donate your handmade crafts. Please consider volunteering to staff either venue.

Bible Study

Sunday morning Bible study at 9:00 a.m. will resume in September but will not meet September 15.

July 14 - Barbara Parsons
July 17 - George Coulombe
August 9 - Pete Cianelli
August 30 - Janet Nolan

August 18, 1989 - July Randall and Richard Schiavone

Encouraging Words

Diane Villano

Sharing messages too long for our sidewalk sign:

Being a Christian doesn't mean you won't fail. It means Jesus will catch you when you do.

You can tell how big a person is by what it takes to discourage him.

Someone who says it can't be done is likely to be interrupted by someone doing it.

SUMMER IN THE PARK!

SUMMER AT LAST!! With the warm weather let us embrace and enjoy all the outdoor concerts that are available throughout the summer season. Most are free so why not pack a picnic basket and head towards town greens and beaches to enjoy them. We certainly have many to choose from starting with the City Arts Programs on the New Haven Town Green each Saturday evening leading up to our own Fall Festival in September. Let's not forget the New Haven Classical and Pop Concerts during the months of June and July in the City of New Haven. New York has Opera in The Park where you can attend live Operas on certain days and weekends in Central Park free of charge. If you feel like traveling, the cities in Iowa, Illinois, Arkansas and Ohio host their summer opera performances as well.

But you can still enjoy all the concerts and free programs throughout your local community. Also, North Haven Cinema and Branford Theatres will be hosting encore productions of some of the opera broadcasts you may have missed during the opera season. Check your local listings for times and theatres near you.

I would like to wish all of you a happy and healthy summer filled with music and fun. I will be back in September to kick off the 2019-2020 opera season previews.

P.S. Don't forget to enjoy all the beautiful fireworks. See you soon!!
